

Cracow University
of Technology

Urban Summer School
at Faculty of Architecture, Cracow University of Technology

PLANNING A BETTER CITY 2019

organized and financed within the project EXCELLENCE PROGRAMMING – PK XXI 2.0. Cracow University of Technology development program for the years 2018-2022

We invite you to sign up for classes at the Urban Summer School of the Faculty of Architecture at the Cracow University of Technology in 2019. The theme of this year's urban workshops organized by the Institute of Cities and Regions Design, Faculty of Architecture at the Cracow University of Technology is Planning a Better City.

Urban Summer School classes are an extension of courses conducted at national and foreign faculties of architecture. The basic formula of the summer course is thinking about the problems of contemporary cities. The basic formula is to think about problems concerning contemporary cities, the role of architect and urban planner in the process of shaping the urban space with particular emphasis on the contemporary development of cities with a historical background.

The workshop educational system of Urban Summer School provides support for the program's implementation by lectures and presentations of professors from Polish and foreign academic centers, experienced architects and urban planners. The course includes classes in the form of workshops, lectures, sightseeing of Krakow and study tours to the picturesque corners of southern Poland.

All classes are taught in English.

The term of the Summer School classes: 19-29.09.2019.

Registration deadline: 31/05/2019

Fee: 890 Euro

Additional information: www.a5.pk.edu.pl

Registration: wwojcikowski@pk.edu.pl

